Premium Discontinuance (1/2)

The policy will move into discontinuance status on expiry of the Grace Period in case of discontinuance of the policy due to non-payment of premium.

Discontinuance of policy during the first five policy years i.e. during Lock-in Period:

For Regular/Limited Pay Policy:

If due premium has not been paid within the grace period, the total fund value after deducting the applicable discontinuance charges, shall be credited to the Discontinued Policy Fund and the risk cover and rider benefits (if any) shall cease. The policyholder can revive such policies by paying all due unpaid premium within a revival period of three years from the date of first unpaid premium. On such discontinuance, the Company shall communicate the status of the policy within three months of the first unpaid premium to the policyholder and provide the following options:

Option	Description	Treatment
1	Revive the policy within the revival period of three years from the date of first unpaid premium	<ul style="list-style-type: none">In case the policyholder opts to revive but does not revive the policy during the revival period, the proceeds of the discontinued policy fund shall be paid to the policyholder at the end of the revival period or end of fifth policy year, whichever is later, and the policy will terminate. In respect of revival period ending after the end of the fifth policy year, the policy will remain in discontinuance fund till the end of the revival period. At the end of the revival period, the proceeds of the discontinuance fund shall be paid to the policyholder and the policy shall terminateIn case the policyholder does not exercise the option as mentioned above, the policy shall continue without any risk cover and rider benefits (if any) and the policy fund value will remain invested in discontinued policy fund. At the end of the fifth policy year, the proceeds of the discontinuance fund shall be paid to the policyholder and the policy shall terminate. Fund Management Charge of the discontinued policy fund will be applicable during this period and no other charges shall be applicable. You may choose to revive the policy within the revival period in accordance with "Policy Revival" section detailed below.
2	Surrender the Policy	You have the option to surrender the policy anytime and you will be entitled to the Discontinued Policy Fund Value at the end of fifth policy year or the date of surrender whichever is later, and the policy will be terminated.

For Single Premium Policy:

You have an option to surrender any time during the first five policy years. On receiving your request for surrender, the fund value after deducting the applicable discontinuance charge, shall be credited to the discontinuance policy fund and risk cover and rider cover, if any, shall cease. The policy shall continue to be invested in the discontinued policy fund and the proceeds shall be paid at the end of the first five policy years. Only Fund Management Charge is applicable during this period.

In the event of death of the Life Assured while the policy is in discontinuance status, the proceeds from the Discontinued Policy Fund shall be payable immediately as on the date of death and the Policy shall terminate.

Discontinuance of policy after the first five policy years i.e. after Lock-in Period:

For Regular/Limited Pay Policy

If due premium has not been paid within the grace period, the policy shall be converted into a reduced paid up policy with the paid-up sum assured. The paid-up sum assured will be calculated as equal to base sum assured multiplied by the total number of premiums paid divided by the original number of premiums payable. The policy shall continue to be in reduced paid up status without rider benefits (if any). All charges as per terms and conditions of the policy will be deducted during the revival period. The mortality charge will be deducted based on the reduced paid up sum assured only.

On such discontinuance the Company shall communicate the status of the policy within three months of the first unpaid premium to the policyholder and provide the following options as specified in the table below:

Option	Description	Treatment
1	Revive the policy within the revival period of 3 years	<ul style="list-style-type: none">In case the policyholder opts to revive the policy but does not revive the policy during the revival period, the fund value shall be payable at the end of the revival period and the policy will terminateIn case the policyholder does not exercise the option as mentioned above, the policy shall continue to be in reduced paid up status. At the end of the revival period the fund value shall be payable and the policy will terminate
2	Surrender the policy	The policyholder has the option to surrender the policy anytime during the revival period and the fund value shall be payable and the policy will terminate

Revival of a Discontinued Policy during Lock-in Period:

- a) The Policyholder may revive the Policy within the Revival Period of three consecutive complete years from the date of the first unpaid Premium or expiry of the Policy Term, whichever is earlier.
- b) Where the Policyholder revives the Policy, the Policy shall be revived restoring the risk cover, along with the investments made in the Segregated Funds as chosen by the Policyholder, out of the Discontinued Fund, less the applicable charges in accordance with the terms and conditions of the policy.
- c) The rider benefits, if any, can also be revived subject to the Board Approved Underwriting policy
- d) The Company, at the time of revival:
 - i. Shall collect all due and unpaid premiums (including rider premiums, if any) without charging any interest or fee, subject to the Board Approved Underwriting policy.
 - ii. Shall levy Premium Allocation Charge and Policy Administration Charge as applicable during the Discontinuance period. No other charges shall be levied.
 - iii. Shall add back to the fund, the Discontinuance charges deducted at the time of Discontinuance of the Policy

Revival of a Discontinued Policy after Lock-in Period:

- a) The Policyholder may revive the Policy within the Revival Period of three consecutive complete years from the date of the first unpaid Premium or expiry of the Policy Term, whichever is earlier.
- b) Where the Policyholder revives the Policy, the Policy shall be revived restoring the risk cover in accordance with the terms and conditions of the policy.
- c) The rider benefits, if any, can also be revived subject to the Board Approved Underwriting policy
- d) The Company, at the time of revival:
 - i. Shall collect all due and unpaid premiums (including rider premiums, if any) without charging any interest or fee. Rider, if any, may also be revived subject to Board Approved Underwriting policy.
 - ii. Shall levy Premium Allocation Charge as applicable.

Surrender

Surrender Value is acquired immediately on payment of the Base Premium.

On surrender of the policy during the first five policy years, the Total Fund Value (i.e. Base Fund Value plus Top-up Fund Value), if any, after deduction of applicable Discontinuance Charge, shall be transferred to the Discontinued Policy Fund and risk cover and rider cover, if any, shall cease. The policy proceeds from this Discontinued Policy Fund will be payable to you at the end of the fifth policy year or date of surrender whichever is later. If the life assured dies before the payment of the surrender benefit, we will pay the policy proceeds from Discontinued Policy Fund immediately and terminate the contract.

On surrender after completion of the fifth policy year, you will be entitled to the Total Fund Value.

Once a policy is surrendered in full, it will be terminated and cannot be reinstated.

Grace Period

There is a grace period of 30 days from the due date for payment of Regular Premiums. In case of monthly frequency, the grace period is of 15 days. During this period the policy is considered to be in force with the risk cover as per the terms & conditions of the policy.

Suicide exclusion

If the Life Assured, whether sane or insane, commits suicide within 12 months from the date of inception of the policy or from the date of revival of the policy, the nominee/claimant of the Policyholder shall be entitled to Fund Value, as on the date of intimation of death. Any charges other than Fund Management Charge recovered subsequent to the date of death will be paid-back to nominee or beneficiary along with the Fund Value, as available on the date of intimation of death.

Free look period

You are provided with free look period of 30 days beginning from the date of receipt of policy document, whether received electronically or otherwise, to review the terms and conditions stipulated in the policy document. In the event you disagree to any of the policy terms or conditions, or otherwise and have not made any claim, you shall have the option to return the policy to the company for cancellation, stating the reasons for the same. You are requested to take appropriate acknowledgement of your request letter and return of policy document. Irrespective of the reasons mentioned, the Company shall refund the non-allocated premium plus charges levied by cancellation of units plus fund value at the date of cancellation less (a) proportionate risk premium for the period of cover (b) medical examination costs, if any and (c) stamp duty, along with applicable taxes, duties and cess (as applicable), which has been incurred for issuing the Policy. Please note that if the Policy is opted through Insurance Repository ('IR'), the computation of the said Free Look Period will be from the date of the email informing Policy credit in IR. A request received by the Company for free look cancellation of the policy shall be processed and premium refunded within 7 days of receipt of the request.

Prohibition of rebate should be in accordance with provisions of Section 41 of the Insurance Act, 1938 as amended from time to time.

No person shall allow or offer to allow, either directly or indirectly, as an inducement to any person to take or renew or continue an insurance in respect of any kind of risk relating to lives or property in India, any rebate of the whole or part of the commission payable or any rebate of the premium shown on the Policy, nor shall any person taking out or renewing or continuing a Policy accept any rebate, except such rebate as may be allowed in accordance with the published prospectuses or tables of the insurer.

Section 45 of the Insurance Act, 1938, as amended from time to time

RELIANCE

INSURANCE

1. No policy of life insurance shall be called in question on any ground whatsoever after the expiry of three years from the date of the policy, i.e., from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later.
2. A policy of life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later, on the ground of fraud: Provided that the insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured the grounds and materials on which such decision is based.
3. Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), no insurer shall repudiate a life insurance policy on the ground of fraud if the insured can prove that the mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact was true to the best of his knowledge and belief or that there was no deliberate intention to suppress the fact or that such mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact are within the knowledge of the insurer: Provided that in case of fraud, the onus of disproving lies upon the beneficiaries, in case the policyholder is not alive.
4. A policy of life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later, on the ground that any statement of or suppression of a fact material to the expectancy of the life of the insured was incorrectly made in the proposal or other document on the basis of which the policy was issued or revived or rider issued: Provided that the insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured the grounds and materials on which such decision to repudiate the policy of life insurance is based: Provided further that in case of repudiation of the policy on the ground of misstatement or suppression of a material fact, and not on the ground of fraud, the premiums collected on the policy till the date of repudiation shall be paid to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured within a period of ninety days from the date of such repudiation.
5. Nothing in this section shall prevent the insurer from calling for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so, and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof that the age of the life insured was incorrectly stated in the proposal.
