Death Benefit

There is no death benefit available under this plan.

Maturity Benefit

There is no maturity benefit available under this plan.

Grace Period for payment of premiums

If you are unable to pay your premium by the due date, you will be given a grace period of 30 days (15 days for monthly frequency). Where the Premium is not paid on or before due date, benefit under this Policy shall not be available for the period beginning on Premium due date and ending on date of Premium payment. Coverage is not available for the period for which no premium is received.

Waiting Period

Waiting period is the time period within which no policy claims are admissible. Waiting Period of 180 days will be applicable from the date of commencement of Risk and from the date of revival for every subsequent revival during the policy term. No benefit shall be payable if signs or symptoms, or diagnosis of Early Stage Cancer or CIS, or Relapse of Cancer or Major Stage Cancer to the Life Insured occurs during this Waiting Period.

Survival Period

There is no survival period applicable in respect of any of the benefit payments under this plan.

Premium Discontinuance

You are advised to pay the premiums on or before the premium due date to continue enjoying the benefits under this policy. However, in case if you are unable to do so, you can pay the premiums within the grace period post the premium due date. If you do not pay the premiums either on the premium due date or within the grace period, your policy will lapse and all benefits under the policy will cease.

Revival

You can revive your lapsed policy within five years from the due date of the first unpaid premium but before policy maturity, by paying the arrears of premiums along with the applicable revival interest subject to Board Approved Underwriting Policy. The Company reserves the right to revise the applicable interest rate less frequently than annual. The revival of the policy will be subject to Company's Board approved underwriting policy. If a lapsed Policy is not revived by end of the revival period, the Policy shall be terminated. If a policy is revived the premiums for revival shall be based on the premium rate applicable when the premiums were due.

Waiting Period of 180 days will be applicable from the date of revival for every revival during the policy term. No benefit shall be payable if signs or symptoms, or diagnosis of Early Stage Cancer or CIS or Relapse of Cancer or Major Stage Cancer to the Life Insured occurs during this Waiting Period.

Surrender

We encourage you to continue your policy as planned; however, you have the option to surrender the same. The policy can be surrendered on your written request to us from the subsequent premium due date. No benefit shall be payable on surrender of your Policy.

No benefit under this Policy will be payable in respect of any Cancer resulting directly or indirectly from or in respect of any of the following:

RELIANCE

INSURANCE

1. No policy of life insurance shall be called in question on any ground whatsoever after the expiry of three years from the date of the policy, i.e., from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later.
2. A policy of life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later, on the ground of fraud: Provided that the insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured the grounds and materials on which such decision is based.
3. Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-section (2), no insurer shall repudiate a life insurance policy on the ground of fraud if the insured can prove that the mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact was true to the best of his knowledge and belief or that there was no deliberate intention to suppress the fact or that such mis-statement of or suppression of a material fact are within the knowledge of the insurer: Provided that in case of fraud, the onus of disproving lies upon the beneficiaries, in case the policyholder is not alive.
4. A policy of life insurance may be called in question at any time within three years from the date of issuance of the policy or the date of commencement of risk or the date of revival of the policy or the date of the rider to the policy, whichever is later, on the ground that any statement of or suppression of a fact material to the expectancy of the life of the insured was incorrectly made in the proposal or other document on the basis of which the policy was issued or revived or rider issued: Provided that the insurer shall have to communicate in writing to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured the grounds and materials on which such decision to repudiate the policy of life insurance is based: Provided further that in case of repudiation of the policy on the ground of misstatement or suppression of a material fact, and not on the ground of fraud, the premiums collected on the policy till the date of repudiation shall be paid to the insured or the legal representatives or nominees or assignees of the insured within a period of ninety days from the date of such repudiation.
5. Nothing in this section shall prevent the insurer from calling for proof of age at any time if he is entitled to do so, and no policy shall be deemed to be called in question merely because the terms of the policy are adjusted on subsequent proof that the age of the life insured was incorrectly stated in the proposal.
